

ASSOCIATION FOR THE
STUDY OF OBESITY

Satiety: From Origins to Applications

Tuesday 3 March 2015

UCL Institute of Child Health

Who should attend?

Dietitians

Nutritionists

Weight management specialists

Clinical researchers

Policy makers

Scientists

Others working in obesity

Conference Programme

Morning session: Origins and physiology of food intake control

Chair Professor Jason Halford, University of Liverpool

9:30 Registration and refreshments

10.00 Welcome and conference introductions

10:05 Genetic determinants of food intake and growth

10:30 Origins of the GLP -1 satiety signal

10:55 Neural correlates of CCK mediated nutrient effects on satiety

11.20 Refreshments

Part 2: Nutrient-Gut-Brain effects on satiation and satiety

11:40 Gastrointestinal management of satiety and energy homeostasis

12:05 Macronutrients, satiation and satiety

12:30 Sensory-cognitive influences on satiation and satiety

12.55 Lunch and posters

Part 3: Free Communications

14:00 4 x 15 minute talks

Afternoon Sessions: Benefits of satiety for the consumer

Chair Dr Graham Finlayson, University of Leeds

15:00 Satiety benefits for the consumer

15:25 Satiety in the context of weight management

Expert Panel discussion:

15:50 Is there any future in satiety-based health claims?

Anders Sjodin University of Copenhagen, Joanne Harrold
University of Liverpool, Douwina Bosscher Cargill,

16.15 Close

Speakers include: Dr Giles Yeo, Professor C (Kees) de Graaf,
Dr Alex Johnstone, Dr James Stubbs, Professor John McLaughlin,
Dr Massimo Marzorati, Dr Jo Harrold, Dr Anders Sjodin

Questions for the expert panel can be submit prior to the event by contact Caroline Devine at the University of Liverpool cdevine@liv.ac.uk 0151 793 2955

How to Book

- Online booking at the ASO website: www.aso.org.uk
- Unable to book online, please contact the ASO Office :
Email catherine.stone@aso.org.uk , Tel: 01304 367788

Early Bird 20% discount if you register by 6 January 2015

Deadline for registration 24 February 2015

Registration fees

ASO Members

Full Individual	£45
Departmental	£45
Student	£20

Non-members

Private Sector	£180
Academic, NHS, Public Sector	£110
UK Registered Charity	£90
Student	£45

Buffet lunch will be provided.

Deadline for registration 24 February 2015

Cancellation after 24 February 2015 will incur a charge of 50% of your registration fee The ASO reserves the right to alter the programme at any time without notice should unforeseen circumstances arise.

